

Homework! Oh, Homework!
I hate you! You stink!
I wish I could wash you away in the sink,
if only a bomb
would explode you to bits.
Homework! Oh, homework!
You're giving me fits.

I'd rather take baths
with a man-eating shark,
or wrestle a lion
alone in the dark,
eat spinach and liver,
pet ten porcupines,
than tackle the homework,
my teacher assigns.

Homework! Oh, homework!
you're last on my list,
I simple can't see
why you even exist,
if you just disappeared
it would tickle me pink.
Homework! Oh, homework!
I hate you! You stink!

Located on the second floor of the Main Library, the Homework Center is a place where students can complete their assignments in quiet surroundings with help from certified teachers and education students from area colleges and universities. The teachers are supervised by Cheryl Darden, supervisor of the Special Education department of the Cleveland City School District.

The Homework Center is open twice a week and generally follows the Shaker Schools calendar. Students receive free one-on-one homework help or group help, as needed. In addition, students have access to basic school supplies, reference material from the Library's collection, and the use of laptop computers.

An adult must be present to register the student at the first visit. Students must be picked up by 6:30 p.m.
